John Ridgway is an industrial consultant and also on the staff of the Navigators. Born in Newcastle, Australia; he and his wife Ruth have been married 34 years. They have 2 children Ranjini 33 and Raja 32; both born in Bangalore, India. John completed his doctorate degree in Solid State Physics in 1970. From 1972-74, he led the Air Force Academy ministry in Colorado Springs, Co. After that, he returned to Australia and led the Navigator ministries in Sydney. From 1976 – 1994, John led a team of 50 to open a ministry among the Hindu mainstream in India. After 18 years there, John and his family moved to Singapore for 2 years and then spent 7 years in Malaysia. During this time, John was responsible for the Frontier ministries (with Navigators) in Asia, focusing on the Muslim, Buddhist, Shinto and Hindu mainstreams of Asia.

In 2003, John and Ruth relocated to Denver. John continues to coach numerous insider movements that are emerging in the non-Christian mainstreams of Asia. He is also focused on the Asian American and Native American ministries in the US.

CHILDREN & YOUTH

Children, Youth & Young Adults join one of six age groups: nursery (0-2), 3-4yrs, K-1st, Grades 2-5, Grades 6-8, High School & Young Singles (college age & single adults with NO children). All programs from nursery to YS, are designed by the leaders to be age appropriate. All ages enjoy the benefit of learning about Christ both inside & outside of the class rooms.

HIGH SCHOOL GROUP During the week, the high school group stays together in a dorm facility (with their HS leaders), which also serves as their classroom.
